DAILY FASHION TALKS

BY MAY MANTON

A SMART SHIRT WAIST GOWN.

STRIPED materials are to be exceedingly fashionable throughout the spring and the summer. This gown is made of striped linen and is exceedingly smart at the same time that it is quite simple. The waist is of the regulation tailored sort with just one plait over each shoulder and the skirt is four gored, but the front gore is shaped after an unusual and somewhat distinctive manner.

In the illustration it is joined to a belt at the natural waist line, but it can be extended a little above and worn without belt, if preferred. Also the waist is an adaptable one, for it can be finished with a rolled-over collar and elbow sleeves. The band on the side portions of the skirt shows an effective use of striped material cut on the cross, and the gown is altogether a most satisfactory one. It could be made in shirt waist style. The skirt makes an excellent model for the coat suit also, and it can be utilized for that purpose which fills such a useful place in every wardrobe. When designed for such use, it will be found adapted to serge and mohair and to all seasonal materials of the kind. For the shirt waist all the materials that are used for simple blouses and waists are appropriate. The entire gown, made of white linen with the fronts of the waist embroidered with the pocket omitted, and a little embroidery on the extensions of the skirt, would be exceedingly handsome.

6939 Shirt Waist or Blouse, 34 or 42 bust.
6864 Four Gored Walking Skirt, 22 to 30 waist.

A May Manton pattern of the waist, No. 6939, sizes 34 to 42 inches bust, or of the skirt, No. 6864, sizes 22 to 30 inches waist, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents for each. (If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage, which insures more prompt delivery.)
